

Our Advocacy Work

We need and welcome people of conscience to join our efforts in support of the people of Sudan. We will use this space to keep you up-to-date on ways you can advocate on their behalf and also to let you know of some of our advocacy work. We partner with other organizations across the country and the globe who work tirelessly to improve life in Sudan. Among them are Enough! (www.enoughproject.org), Save Darfur Coalition (www.savedarfur.org), the Massachusetts Coalition to Save Darfur (www.savedarfurma.org), and Africa Action (africaaction.org).

===

```
var _gaq = _gaq || [];
_gaq.push(['_setAccount', 'UA-29469755-2']);
_gaq.push(['_trackPageview']); (function() {
var ga = document.createElement('script'); ga.type = 'text/javascript'; ga.async = true;
ga.src = ('https:' == document.location.protocol ? 'https://ssl' : 'http://www') + '.google-analytics.com/ga.js';
var s = document.getElementsByTagName('script')[0]; s.parentNode.insertBefore(ga, s);
})();
```

Judgement on Genocide at the United Nations Church Center, November, 13, 2006

"Judgement on Genocide The International Citizens Tribunal for Sudan" took place at the United Nations Church Center in New York City on November 13, 2006. Though the trial did not carry legal authority, it was an opportunity to speak out for those who have been victimized and those who have been eyewitnesses to the crimes against humanity and genocide that have taken place in Sudan for more than twenty years. My Sister's Keeper Gloria White-Hammond served on a panel of distinguished judges, including Nobel laureate Wole Solinka who served as Chief Judge.

Click here to see video of the testimonies and evidence.

-

Visit www.JudgementOnGenocide.com for information on the defendants, participants, indictments, testimony, and judgements.

-

Click here to read about the defendants

-

Click here to read about the participants, including Gloria White-Hammond and Wole Solinka.

-

Click here to see video of some of the proceedings, including the opening statement by the chief judge, testimonies from Mohamed Elgadi, Susannah Sirkin, Jarelnabi Abbass Abusikin, and a final concurring verdict from Gloria.

-

Click here to read the judgements, opening statements, and closing statements.

===

My Sister's Keeper advocates for ending genocide in Darfur in policy meeting with President George W. Bush in the Roosevelt Room, April 28, 2006

White House photo by Paul Morse

"I just had an extraordinary conversation with fellow citizens from different faiths, all of who have come to urge our government to continue to focus on saving lives in Sudan," said the President to the press. "They agree with thousands of our citizens — hundreds of thousands of our citizens — that genocide in ," said the President to the press. "They agree with thousands of our citizens — hundreds of thousands of our citizens — that genocide in ," said the President to the press. "They agree with thousands of our citizens — hundreds of thousands of our citizens — that genocide in Sudan is unacceptable."

===